Editor-In-Chief

Dear Authors/Readers/Colleagues,

Greetings;

On behalf of the editorial board, it gives me immense pleasure to welcome all our authors, reviewers, and readers to the first edition of NOON Scientific Journal (NOONSJ) for which I have acted as Editor-in-Chief.

I was extremely proud and honored to take over this role, after successful experiences as editor-in-chief, associate editor, editorial board member, peer reviewer and more in different journals from 2008 to date.

NOONSJ is a peer-reviewed and open-access journal dedicated to fostering cutting-edge research and discourse in multidisciplinary fields.

The journal actually intends to publish high-quality and original research, reviews, case studies, and perspectives that address emerging challenges and opportunities in the field related to the journal's themes. Our team of esteemed editorial board and reviewers works diligently to ensure a fair, constructive, and timely peer-review process.

The main mission is to provide a platform for scholars, practitioners, and innovators to share high-quality work that contributes to the advancement of knowledge and practice.

I am fortunate to be supported by a highly committed, hardworking, and enthusiastic management team. In this regard, I am deeply grateful for the support provided by Prof. Dr. Ali M. Elfitori, the former President of Libyan Academy for Postgraduates' Studies, Ajdabiya Branch, as well as by Prof. Dr. Yahya Saad Hamad, who has been appointed as the new President of the Libyan Academy for Postgraduates' Studies, Ajdabiya Branch. Both consistently go above and beyond to ensure that the journal begins its mission and fulfills its duties successfully and on time.

I would also like to thank all authors who have chosen NOONJS as a venue for publishing the findings of their research, as well as all our reviewers for their dedication, time, and hard work in strengthening the quality of the articles received for the first volume and its issues (June and December 2025). To our readers, we hope you will find the journal's content insightful and valuable for your professional endeavors.

Finally, as we are expanding our Editorial Board, we are extending a warm invitation to those who have expertise and commitment to join our journal's editorial board and help us in reviewing articles related to their fields. Please feel free to submit your CV with a photograph to this e-mail: noonsjeditor@gmail.com
